

Diabetes WA Membership

Diabetes WA membership complements your NDSS registration by providing support, services and programs to help you live a full and healthy life.

What is Diabetes WA?

Diabetes WA is a member based organisation for people living with, or at risk of, diabetes. We inform, educate and support thousands of Western Australians, helping them and their families to better manage their diabetes.

For a low annual fee, becoming a member of Diabetes WA will connect you to a community of more than 200,000 people navigating their own health journey.

Why should I join Diabetes WA?

- You will receive an exclusive quarterly magazine full of information on diabetes, prevention, management, research and tasty recipes approved by dietitians.
- Access support and information through a members-only area on our website.
- Get great discounts with our commercial partners.
- Access specialised events and programs in rural and metro WA.
- We offer free telephone advice.
- Enable your voice to be heard and join us in advocating for people with diabetes.

How do I become a member?

Call our membership team on 1300 001 880 to join or for more information visit our website at www.diabeteswa.com.au/get-involved

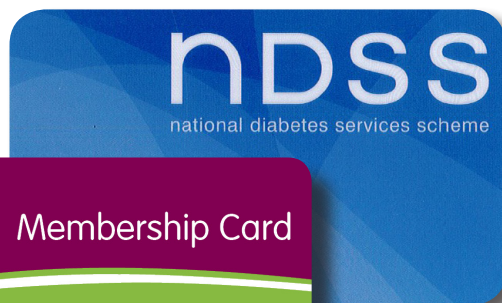

What is the NDSS?

The National Diabetes Services Scheme (NDSS) is an Australian Government scheme that delivers subsidised products and services to people with diabetes.

How do I register with the NDSS?

- At the time of your diagnosis of diabetes, your health professional will register you with the NDSS free of charge.
- You will receive a registrant pack in the mail that contains your new NDSS card and information on the benefits of the NDSS.
- You will need this card when accessing NDSS products and services.

To confirm your NDSS registration or to find out more information call our team on 1300 136 588.

Here for your health journey.
